

What will you see, under the Sea?

Think about the amazing creatures you might encounter under the sea and try to describe them beautifully in this wavy, watery poem.

